BILL GILES President, Chief Executive Officer & General Partner

From a part-time staffer who did odds and ends to the President of a major league baseball club. That's the lifetime baseball story of William Y. (Bill) Giles.

Born in Rochester, NY on September 7, 1934, nearly all of Giles' life has been spent around the game of baseball. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati.

Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

He attained his current position on October 29, 1981. It was on this date Giles' group of partners purchased the Phillies from the Carpenter family. When the Carpenters announced they were selling the club prior to the 1981 season, Giles went to work organizing a group. He interviewed a field of 200 potential partners. His final group consisted of six different partners.

Giles' path to Philadelphia wound through the minor leagues and two big league clubs.

His first official baseball position came when he was 19, following his freshman year at Denison University. "I was sent to Morristown (TN) in the old Mountain States League as General Manager to save a poor team. Within the week, the entire league folded," he laughs now.

While at Denison he played football, tennis and baseball and was President of the Sigma Chi fraternity his senior year.

Following graduation (B.A. degree in Economics), Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career began full time in 1959, following a discharge from the Air Force, when he was named General Manager of the Nashville Vols (Cincinnati Reds minor league team). From there he moved to the expansion Houston Colt .45s.

While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

The Phillies are very active in the community. The tone for community involvement is set by Giles. He donates many hours to the community. He is active in many organizations: Chairman of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the

Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Economic Coalition and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles had been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year (1985) by the Boy Scouts of America; 1992 recipient of the Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993); Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamations League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996) and 1996 recipient of the Vision of Philadelphia Award by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.

Giles is likewise very active in major league baseball matters. He's currently on the Executive Council, Official Rules Committee, Chairman of Television Committee, Schedule Format Committee and is Chairman of the Marketing Committee.

Bill and his wife, Nancy, reside in Villanova, PA. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Chris. Joe, his wife, Paula and daughter, Caroline and Chris, his wife, Amy and daughter, Elizabeth all live in the Philadelphia area.

He has been given three contract extensions since that time, the most recent, signed in 1993, taking him through the 1997 season. In January of 1992 his title was changed once again to Senior Vice President and General Manager.

Architect of the 1993 Phillies, only the third last to first place team, he was named Major League Executive of the Year for 1993.

He joined the Phillies after being the Director of Player Development for the St. Louis Cardinals since 1981. An 18-year career with the Cardinals began in 1970 when he was a triple-A player-coach at Tulsa. From there, Thomas was the Cardinals bullpen coach (1971-72), minor league manager (1973 at Sarasota and 1974 at Modesto), assistant in the sales and promotions department with the major league club, traveling secretary (1976-80) and then director, player development, (1981-88).

An outfielder-first baseman, Thomas signed with the Yankees in 1954. He played eight years in the majors with the Yankees, Angels, Red Sox, Braves, Cubs and Astros and one year in Japan (1969), with the Nankai Hawks. He was an All-Star with the Angels in 1962.

Lee and Susan Thomas are the parents of two boys, Scott and Matthew. They reside in Yardley.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Two-night double-headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings).

RULE 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next schedule, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

RAIN RULES

A game is in the hands of the home team up until the game starts. Once a game has started, the Umpire-In-Chief assumes the right to determine whether the game shall be stopped because of the bad weather or unfit playing conditions.

When a game is temporarily suspended because of rain, umpires must wait 1 hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. Should there be a second suspension, umpires shall wait at least 45 minutes before calling a game. For a third and any subsequent rain delays umpires are to wait at least 30 minutes.

TIE GAMES

The Phillies have played 77 tie games since 1900, including a club record eight in 1913. The longest stretch without a tie game was from October 3, 1965 to April 7, 1979, covering 2, 103 scheduled games. The last time a game was tied was June 5, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh.

Tie games by Club: Cubs and *Braves 14 each; Giants 11; *Dodgers 10; Reds 9; Cardinals and Pirates 8; Expos 2; Mets 1; Astros, Padres, Marlins and Rockies 0.

* Phils have not had a tie vs. the Braves or Dodgers since those clubs moved to Atlanta and Los Angeles.

QUALIFYING MARKS

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

ROOKIE: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

SAVE: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completed a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide at bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher) by total plate appearances (at bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifice flies).

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

WAIVERS

WAIVERS—Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes.

NO WAIVERS are required to trade a Major League player at any other time.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's early history. The Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team.

Philadelphia's earliest team was called the Athletics. The year was 1870. The following year, the National Association was formed and Philadelphia was a part of that league. The team was still called the Athletics.

Al Reach

Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a take-off on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

When the Association disbanded, several of the stronger teams formed (1876) the National League, as it is known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA)

Lost First Game

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,602 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 87 million spectators have attended games since the turn of the century when attendance figures were first recorded.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game, April 30, a 19-10 loss to the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one in that time.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927 forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park, July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-8 loss and a 10-2 win.

Ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly, while the A's remained stable under the Shibe family. From 1903-1943, the Phillies had ten different owners.

Shibe Park later renamed Connie Mack Stadium

HISTORY

Carpenter Era Begins

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE), bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr, the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays although they still maintained the official Phillies title. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

The name Blue Jays was heavily used the first two years (1944-45) and then began to appear less often in the newspapers in 1946 and 1947. The name never appeared in the newspapers after that year.

When Carpenter took over as President, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, called the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbetts Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1.

Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Richie Ashburn, the center fielder, started a string of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles.

A world title eluded the Phillies as the New York Yankees swept the Phillies in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Thirteen years and many disagreements later, Veterans Stadium opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971. In 1995, 25 years later, the Phillies celebrated the Silver Season of the Vet with a special logo and events throughout the year.

Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history when at precisely 11:29 p.m., Tuesday, October 21, 1980, Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship. Dallas Green was the manager.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as president in 1972 and general manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League east in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they had signed free agent Pete Rose.

Bob Carpenter, Jr.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

1980 World Series Trophy

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS.

The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. A new set of heroes emerged from the 1993 season, when a last-place team from the previous year turned it around with another division title.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through schrewd moves by general manager Lee Thomas.

Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens, as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the World Series.

Heroes such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered, but there were new heroes on the scene from the 1993 team, which led the NL for all but one day throughout the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a team with a total team effort. All 25 emerged as heroes.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favorite Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

But, Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise, Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners, Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian.

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television: Gene Kelly, By Saam, Rich Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Under Giles' regime, the Phillies became more and more involved in the community and helping people. Over an 11-year period which began in 1984, the Phillies Family of players, wives and office staff, raised more than $2.6 million to strike out ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease).

The Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Utopia hit Philadelphia when the Phillies won the Series over the Royals, 4-2.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

Giles Buys Team

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, put together five other partners and purchased the team for $30 million.

In Giles' second year as owner, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

Bill Giles

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Individual players contributed financially and personally in helping many, many charities.

In 1989, the Phillies began a Rookie League program for inner-city kids. Last year, more than 7,500 boys and girls played in the leagues. In August of 1995, Philadelphia hosted the RBI World Series. RBI leagues are part of the Rookie League program.

Oh yes. There's one more historic date in Phillies history....April 25, 1978, when a big green furry creature made its' debut as the team's mascot....Phillie Phanatic. As with the 114-year old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to the surrounding community has been a hallmark of the Phillies ever since Bill Giles assumed ownership of the club in 1981.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and covers the wide variety of charity involvement of the organization. In addition to giving funds and providing thousands of charitable donations to a variety of local non-profit organizations, the Phillies have raised over $2.65 million for the official Phillies charity, ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) since 1984.

Darren Daulton, Jim Eisenreich, Tommy Greene, Gregg Jefferies, Mickey Morandini and Curt Schilling are among the Phillies players who also donate time and money to a variety of charities throughout the season.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who work and volunteer as a group throughout the year to raise funds through charitable events.

Among the groups benefiting from the Phillies are: the Boy Scouts of America, the No Greater Love Christmas Party, the Police Athletic League and the United Negro College Fund.

The Phillies Speakers' Bureau is comprised of active and former players, coaches, broadcasters and management, appearing throughout the tri-state area.

Dickie Noles is a key member of the bureau. He speaks to parents and youth groups about alcohol and drug abuse through his S.A.V.E.S Program.

Dick Allen is another important member of the bureau. He represents the Phillies at many functions throughout the year in addition to serving as a roving instructor in the Phillies minor leagues.

The Phillies are also committed to promoting and supporting education and literacy programs. Among those programs: Big League Lunch Program, "Champions of Reading" Library Program, Multiple Sclerosis Read-Athon, Tutorial Team and Visit the Vet Program.

In addition, the Phillies are committed to developing youth baseball in the Philadelphia area. Rookie and RBI leagues are designed to encourage inner city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball. The Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to tri-state area high school baseball players and the Liberty Bell Classic does the same for college level players.

DID YOU KNOW?

The largest trade in Phillies history involved eight players. There were two eight player deals involving the Phils:

On October 7, 1969, Richie Allen, Cookie Rojas and Jerry Johnson were traded to St. Louis for Curt Flood, Tim McCarver, Joe Hoerner and Byron Browne. Flood refused to report and the Cardinals sent Willie Montanez and Bob Browning in his place.

On February 23, 1979, the Phillies traded Barry Foote, Ted Sizemore, Jerry Martin, Derek Botelho and Henry Mack to the Cubs for Manny Trillo, Greg Gross and Dave Rader.

FREE AGENCY

Free agency came about in 1976 when 24 players refused to sign contracts and opted for, at season's end, the right to participate in a re-entry draft.

That draft took place in New York on November 4. Clubs were permitted to select players with whom they could negotiate. There was no compensation for clubs who lost players in this draft.

In later years, the draft was abolished and compensation was required.

Other than signing their own players who had opted for free agency and free agent players signed after being released, the Phillies involvement in the free agent market has been:

1976:	Signed Richie Hebner from Pittsburgh Lost Dave Cash to Montreal
1978:	Signed Pete Rose from Cincinnati
1984:	Lost Sixto Lezcano to Pittsburgh
1987:	Signed Lance Parrish from Detroit Signed David Palmer from Atlanta
1989:	Signed Carmelo Martinez from San Diego
1990:	Signed Wally Backman from Pittsburgh
1992:	Signed Mariano Duncan from Cincinnati
1993:	Signed Pete Incaviglia from Houston Signed Milt Thompson from St. Louis Signed Jim Eisenreich from Kansas City
1994:	Lost Danny Jackson to St. Louis Signed Gregg Jefferies from St. Louis
1995:	Signed Todd Zeile from Chicago Cubs Signed Benito Santiago from Cincinnati

ALL-STAR GAMES IN PHILADELPHIA

July 13, 1943, Shibe Park

AL	5	8	0
NL	3	10	0

Bobby Doerr's 3-run homer in the second inning propelled the AL Stars to their third straight victory before 31,938. Vince DiMaggio led the NL with a single, triple and home run. Winner: Emil Leonard; Loser: Mort Cooper. It was the first ASG played entirely under the lights. Game was shortened to American fighting men throughout the world.

July 8, 1952, Shibe Park

AL	2	5	0

Only game in ASG history not to go nine innings as rain halted play after five innings. Jackie Robinson hit a solo homer in the first and Hank Sauer hit a two-run homer onto the LF roof in the fourth for all the NL runs. Two Philadelphia pitchers started the game, Curt Simmons (Phillies) and Bobby Shantz (A's). Shantz fanned Whitey Lockman, Robinson and Stan Musial in the fifth to the delight of 32,785 fans. Winner: Bob Rush; Loser: Bob Lemon. Game was broadcast on Mutual Radio System and on NBC TV.

July 13, 1975, Veterans Stadium

NL	7	10	0
AL	1	5	0

ASG MVP George Foster hit a 3-run homer to lead NL to fifth win in a row. Third largest crowd (63,974) in ASG history included President Gerald Ford. Five Cincinnati Reds were in the starting lineup. For first time in Phillies history, they had five players in the game: Greg Luzinski (starter in LF), Dave Cash (2b), Larry Bowa (ss), Bob Boone (c) and Mike Schmidt (3b). Winner: Randy Jones; Loser: Mark Fidrych. As estimated 60 million fans watched the game on ABC TV.

AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978

BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 17 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the "new" phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989. He additionally joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. The 29 year old is married to the former Jennifer Kennedy and is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in Marketing.

MINOR LEAGUE REVIEW

PHILS MINOR LEAGUES: BANNER '95 SEASON

Baseball in the Phillies minor league system ended in high style as the Reading Phillies celebrated the Eastern League Championship in the middle of September.

Reading won the Southern Division title and then polished off Trenton, 3-0, before taking New Haven, 3-2, in the championship round. It was Reading's first championship since 1973.

It capped one of the most successful seasons in years:

- ★ Combined, the six teams produced a winning percentage of .533 (375-329), the highest percentage for the Phils since 1980 (.555), the third winning season this decade and the eighth-best recorded in ALL of the minors.
- ★ Three made it to the playoffs: Piedmont (South Atlantic League) and Batavia (New York-Penn League) joined Reading. The last time the Phillies had three teams in the playoffs was 1992.
- ★ Five of the six minor league teams were in the running for post-season play going into the final weekend of the regular season.
